Celebration of

Kappas and their friends dared to dream, shared the vision, and accepted the challenge during the 1990-92 biennium. Individuals, chapters, and alumnae associations gave with compassion to support the educational and charitable programs of the Fraternity. Through generous and loving gifts, the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation experienced marked productivity and growth, touching the lives of thousands.

The three programming areas of the Foundation — financial assistance, educational projects, and the Heritage Museum — progressed visibly. Grant and scholarship donations increased significantly in response to steadily rising costs of higher education. The Foundation introduced three dynamic educational programs: SEEK System — Self-Esteem for Every Kappa, INSIGHT on Domestic Violence, and regional collegiate leadership conferences in partnership with the men's fraternity, Alpha Tau Omega. The Heritage Museum joined the Historical Alliance Tour, and members rejoiced in the Victorian restoration of the parlor and entrance hall at Fraternity Headquarters.

A variety of giving opportunities highlighted the work of the Development Committee. The annual giving appeal, the Loyalty Fund, saw more Kappas giving larger gifts for the support of Kappa philanthropies and educational programs than any time in its history. A Tribute Giving program was launched. Project 2000, introduced during the 1990 Convention, continues to build scholarship funds that benefit chapter members.

As one door closes on the past biennium, another opens to opportunities ahead. The future of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation, the ongoing ability to dream and realize those dreams, will be determined by you who continue to accept the challenge to help meet the overwhelming needs of our members. For the first time we have a waiting list for members seeking confidential aid through the Rose McGill Fund; the escalating costs of higher education, as government and private sources diminish, create enormous financial obstacles for our members trying to complete their education. The Heritage Museum preserves the priceless treasures of our past, and we must protect and enhance this collection for our future members. The complex societal problems of alcohol and substance abuse, domestic violence, safety and security, and self-esteem issues touch all of us. We must continue to provide educational programs to develop awareness and empower our members to affect change in their lives and the lives of others.

Sitting in the beautifully renovated parlor of the Heritage Museum and reflecting on the past biennium, I marvel at the strides we have made in Foundation projects. I look at the pictures of our Founders and am confident they would also marvel at the multiplicity of ways we serve our members today, at the extent of support our members exhibit for their Kappa sisters, and at the vision of our Kappa leadership for tomorrow. The hand of love and friendship will always be extended. The Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation is an enduring tribute to your continuing loyalty and generosity. It is the voice of all caring Kappas.

Loyally,

“The firestorm came over us with no more than a five-minute warning ...”

What a lovely holiday booster to have the thoughtful gifts arrive from Kappas. The blue and white towels went immediately into use as did the hot pad. It is amazing how when all one's belongings go up in flames, we realize quickly how often we rely on seemingly insignificant items such as the kitchen towels and spatula, even the transparent tape you sent!

The luxury gifts are a special treat, and the Neutrogena bath items not only felt great, but I realized how much I had missed that special fragrance. The lemon dessert wafers were a perfect delight to us!

The firestorm came over us with no more than a five-minute warning. Burning embers covered our wood decks. The house three doors away had flames 60 - 100 feet shooting up from the roof. Bushes, trees, and homes caught fire simultaneously. The sky turned black from burning cars, tires, and homes. My purse was near the door, but my husband was unable to get upstairs to retrieve his wallet. We escaped with our lives, grateful to have survived. Many were not so fortunate.

The support of friends, church, family, and Kappa sisters has been immensely helpful and meaningful. The blue Heritage Museum plate will always remind me of our loving Kappa ties. My deep thanks to each of you.

“One phone call turned our lives into a tragic upheaval...”

In September 1990 I was living a very comfortable life. Jack, my husband of 23 years, was a successful attorney; I enjoyed a rewarding job in retail. Our daughter was a second-year Kappa, our sons active in high school. Then one phone call turned our lives into a tragic upheaval. In suicidal tones, Jack had confessed to his brother that he had “betrayed his family, friends, and clients.” Then he disappeared.

I received notice that I was to be evicted from our home of 15 years — a home we had just redecorated — a home with a gardener, housekeeper, and pool man — a home that had gone into foreclosure two years earlier. The utilities were soon to be shut off, there was no car insurance, and my paycheck was to be garnished for taxes, neglected since 1983. Each year I had signed the tax forms; Jack never mailed them.

My Kappa sisters rallied. We went to Jack's office. Unable to locate the check register, we discovered paper he had used to practice forging my signature; my checking account had been emptied. Every penny from our daughter's college fund and our oldest son's summer earnings were gone. Realizing that there wasn't a cent to provide dinner for my children was horrifying. I was penniless and soon-to-be homeless.

Jack ultimately committed himself to a psychiatric hospital, and I began the uphill struggle to rebuild my life, supported by the overwhelming generosity of Kappa alumnae — money, meals, food, even a coffee maker when mine broke. Others helped me wade through legal files and piles of bills at Jack's office. Equally important were the Kappa shoulders to cry on and the warm words of comfort and love.

I had supported the Rose McGill Fund for years but never dreamed I would one day need this help myself, and it was very difficult for me to apply for Kappa assistance. The financial support of the Rose McGill Fund started me on the road of return toward stability and security. I gratefully extend my thanks to both my Kappa friends nearby and those unknown Kappa friends who have supported me through Rose McGill.

—Rose McGill Confidential Aid Recipient

P.S. I separated from Jack in October of 1990. He died of cancer in January of 1992 on my son's 18th birthday. After he died, I learned he hadn't paid on the life insurance policy either.

“The more one gives, the more one receives...”

Adverse circumstances forced me to be totally independent by age 17, the year I entered George Washington University on a four-year Trustee Scholarship. I held three jobs to defray expenses, but my working time was curtailed when I became Pledge Chairman and later on, the Chapter President. Kappa, however, helped me with an Emergency Scholarship.

That year I traveled by train as chapter delegate to the 1956 General Convention. While enroute I met Nora Waln, noted Kappa author who was to be honored as an Alumnae Achievement Award Recipient. We visited at length, and I learned later from the Fraternity President that this gracious woman was setting up a scholarship on my behalf.

A Kappa Chapter Consultant Scholarship allowed me to work with the UCLA chapter and attend graduate school. The next three years Kappa continued to direct my life as I served the Fraternity as a Traveling Secretary, gathering such diverse working talents that I easily secured my next job. The gentleman who hired me to work in the development field for Yale remarked, “Judging from your job as a Traveling Consultant, it looks like you can do ANYTHING!”

Along with Nora Waln's scholarship came these wishes: “I hope someday Beverly will be able to help another needy Kappa.” Not only have I continued to serve the Fraternity in many capacities through the years to return the enormous generosity and help given to me as a young woman, but I had the joy of providing a scholarship donation at the 1988 General Convention, fulfilling the dream of Nora Waln. The recipient was from my own chapter!

The old adage, “The more one gives, the more one receives,” has a lifetime of proof for me within Kappa.

Could this Kappa be you?

Do you live on a fixed income that does not cover your needs?

Have you lost your job, home, business, or car through financial or natural disasters?

Is illness depleting your savings?

Are you an abused or battered woman?

Are you unable to provide food for your children?

Rose McGill Confidential Aid Fund

1990-92 Chairman, Ann Wallace White, Indiana

All of these situations have fallen at the doorsteps of the Rose McGill Kappa Family — women who never expected to ask for financial aid. The Rose McGill Confidential Aid Fund has been their lifeline for survival. Some of these recipients have become self-supporting and have withdrawn from the program, making room for other Kappas.

Aid is private and confidential.

To ensure that this aid will endure, we urge your support of the Rose McGill Confidential Aid Fund through gifts, memorials, honorariums, and magazine subscriptions and renewals.

This holiday, give Dad Sports Illustrated and make your sister happy, too.

Every magazine subscription means a brighter New Year for a Kappa in need.

Isn't it nice to know with one gift you'll make two people happy?

A Time to Love...A Time to Give... Through Rose McGill Holiday Sharing

1990-92 Chairman, Lynn Latham Chaney, LSU

Holidays, birthdays, and special occasions are times of loving, caring, and sharing with a Kappa sister through the Rose McGill Holiday Sharing Program. Participating alumnae associations and chapters are matched with a Rose McGill Kappa to help meet her needs and to brighten her year.

The Long Beach (CA) Alumnae Association has participated in the Holiday Sharing Program for 21 years. They have assisted elderly Kappas, handicapped Kappas, and Kappas with young children in dire circumstances.

Delta Mu Chapter members, Connecticut, sold M & Ms for a year and won money playing volleyball to raise funds for their Holiday Sharing Kappa.

When the Advisory Board of Upsilon Chapter, Northwestern, learned from the spring issue of The Key that Joan Bolz Cleary, Northwestern, had lost everything in the devastating Oakland fire, they arranged for duplicate academic diplomas for her through the university. In May when Joan's first child was born, they gave her a "long-distance" baby shower. Joan responded, "What a surprise and pleasure to receive such an outpouring of friendship and support. It makes me very proud of my heritage."

The Richardson/Plano (TX) Alumnae Association and Zeta Sigma, North Texas, jointly shared a Rose McGill family this past year. The collegians shopped for the children; the alumnae shopped for the parents. Then they gathered for an afternoon "wrap and rap" session — gift-wrapping and visiting.

"I really gained a lot from Lead to Succeed both personally and as a chapter representative. Goal setting with the chapter was very effective. I learned about my own leadership style and how it will work within my chapter. Great conference!"
 — Conference Participant

Lead to Succeed

Kappa Kappa Gamma and Alpha Tau Omega have formed an alliance to deliver leadership development training to undergraduate students in a program called "Lead To Succeed." Participants from each KKG and ATΩ chapter have the opportunity to attend these weekend sessions at sites across the country. In a highly interactive setting, collegians practice leadership techniques that help them succeed as officers and in life.

Above: Kappas and ATΩs, united in team work and spirit, share "the drawing board" to plan and develop an imaginary school.

Insight On Domestic Violence

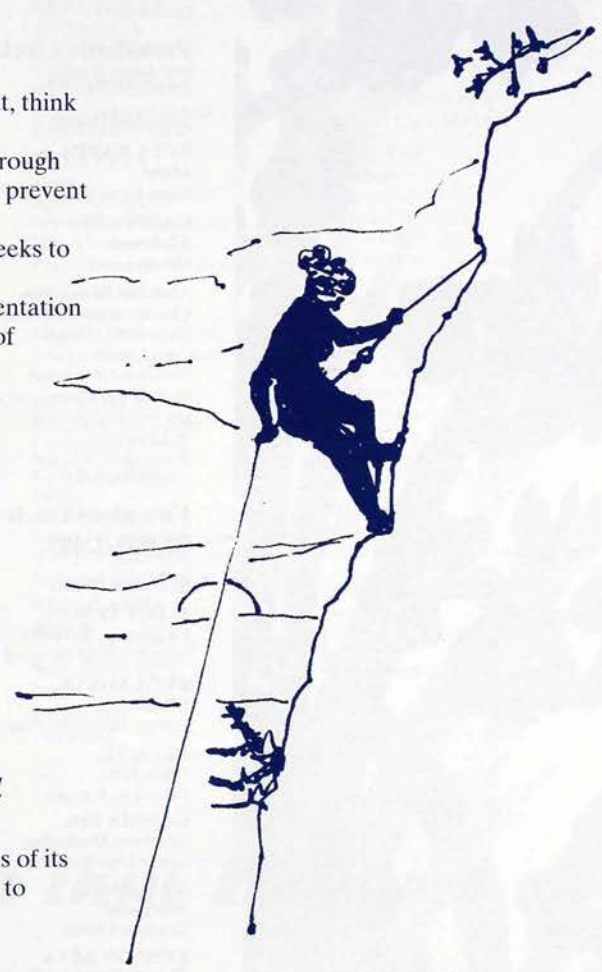

- Domestic violence is not something that happens only to strangers.
- It is not limited to alumnae.
- Signs of abuse may be obvious in college dating relationships.
- Domestic violence can happen anywhere to any woman.

For that reason, INSIGHT is a program vital to every woman—to hear about, think about, discuss, and take to heart.

INSIGHT has three purposes: to increase awareness of domestic violence through education; to provide the tools necessary for coping with existing abuse; and to prevent psychological, sexual, social, economic, and physical abuse to women.

Through resources and education, support and tools for recovery, Kappa seeks to help women in existing abusive relationships.

The INSIGHT program has been prepared to stand alone as a meeting presentation or to be given in conjunction with a local professional speaking on the subject of domestic abuse. Program materials are available by contacting Fraternity Headquarters.

SEEK

Self-Esteem for Every Kappa

Recognizing the importance of positive self-esteem in achieving the life-goals of its members, Kappa Kappa Gamma has developed a process within the Fraternity to foster higher levels of self-esteem in both undergraduates and alumnae.

This process promotes positive individual self-growth and emphasizes:

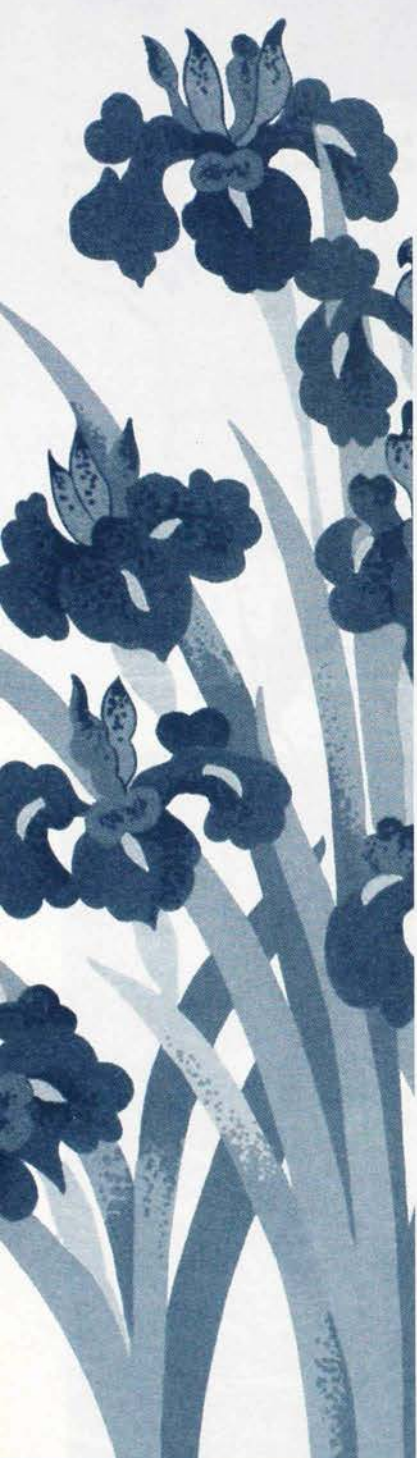

- The affirmation of each member for who she is.
- The opportunity to develop leadership and life-skills that apply to chapter, family, career, and all life experiences.
- Motivation of intellectual curiosity.
- Encouragement to honor the larger world.

The goals of SEEK are to foster self-esteem through an enhanced sense of belonging, the development of competency, and an increased feeling of self-worth.

The Association of Fraternity Advisors, Inc. has named SEEK: Self-Esteem for Every Kappa as one of five of the most outstanding educational programs in the nation among men and women's fraternities.

Gift Opportunities

Cash Gifts

The simplest way to make a gift is to write a check.

Non-Cash Property

It is often in your best interest to contribute appreciated property such as stocks, mutual funds, and real estate instead of cash. With this type of gift you avoid capital gains taxes while receiving an income tax deduction for the full market value of the gift.

Bequests

Simple language may be included in your will or living trust that will name the Foundation as a beneficiary of a designated gift or percentage of your estate. The Foundation can also be named as the beneficiary of a life insurance policy or retirement plan.

Life Income Gifts

Life income gifts allow you to transfer cash, securities or property for the future benefit of Kappa while retaining the income from the gift for your lifetime. These include charitable gift annuities, annuity trust, and charitable remainder unitrusts.

You are encouraged to consult your personal financial advisers when considering and planning bequests and life income gifts.

Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity Headquarters
 and Heritage Museum,
 530 East Town Street,
 Columbus, Ohio.

The Heritage Museum

1990 - 92 Heritage Museum Chairman, Martha Hodson Erwin, Texas

In 1981 Kappas daring to dream established the Heritage Museum in the stately front rooms of Fraternity Headquarters at 530 E. Town Street. The restoration of the parlor and the entrance hall speaks of the elegant era of Kappa's birth.

Using available historical documentation and guided by Museum Director David Hartmann and respected period scholars, the Museum Committee has maintained the architectural integrity of the 1852 Italianate house. The Heritage Museum Tour is based upon Kappa historical data, used as an interpretive vehicle to provide continuity for educational programming about the changing societal roles of 19th century women. A first of its kind in the fraternity world, the Heritage Museum received more than 1,000 visitors during the past biennium.

A separate archival area under the direction of Diane Mallstrom preserves the Fraternity's historic papers and memorabilia. Summer interns, selected from qualified Kappa undergraduates, research and catalogue materials pertinent to Kappa history.

During the 1990-92 biennium, the Heritage Museum Guild, a group of 90 Columbus, OH, alumnae, contributed more than $4,500 toward the interior restoration and the recreation of a Victorian garden in front of this landmark building.

One of a pair of gilt mirrors purchased by the Kansas City Alumnae Association and the Houston Charitable Trust of Kappa Kappa Gamma adorns the mantelpiece in the parlor.

Let us take a moment to soar into the next century, the year 2000. Imagine the opportunities which lie ahead for the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation.

Imagine.....

- That the Foundation can fully fund educational programs; leadership schools whose curriculum includes a variety of personal growth issues; targeted training sessions for chapters and alumnae associations; specialized training for chapter advisers, House Boards, and House Directors; programs on health and wellness issues, values and ethics, mental illness and depression, personal safety and security, and career choices.
- That the Foundation has created an endowment for confidential aid through the Rose McGill Fund so that ALL members in financial distress receive the needed funds to make ends meet.
- That the Foundation has increased the endowment for scholarships and fellowships so that the number awarded has increased and the amount awarded makes a significant difference in the costs of higher education.
- That the Foundation has the capability of offering internships in areas of archives, communication, museum studies, and fund development.
- That the Foundation has created an endowment for The Heritage Museum operations.
- That the Foundation has established Heritage Museum programs and displays depicting the history of women and the role of Kappa Kappa Gamma as a backdrop to that history.

The year 2000 is eight short years away. If we are to be ready to act, to accomplish these dazzling possibilities of the next century, then we must prepare now. We must have the financial resources in place to exceed expenses and increase Foundation assets. We must plan for the changing demographics of our members to continue to meet their needs. We must be willing to form partnerships and coalitions to strengthen the impact of our programs on a broader scope. We must be willing to look ahead, embrace change as an opportunity, and continue to improve.

There is much to be accomplished in the next few years. The Foundation continues to enlarge its base of support, but there is always need for more. As Albert Schweitzer said, "I don't know what your destiny will be, but one thing I know; the only ones among you who will be really happy are those who sought and found how to serve." Because we share a commitment and belief in the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation, and because I know I can count on you, I am optimistic about soaring into the next century.

Loyally,

Andrew Strikes

Kappa reaches out

Like many Kappas everywhere, the Miami Alumnae Association members gathered to celebrate Founders Day in October. How they got there, exactly two months to the day after America's worst natural disaster this century scored a direct hit on their community, is an affirmation of all that is beautiful and good.

When Hurricane Andrew's devastating power whipped southern Florida in August, 150,000 people were left homeless. Power, water, telephones, police and fire protection, markets, post offices, mass transit, and traffic control were crippled or destroyed. Three million people were cut off from the rest of the world and each other. The military moved in to restore order, bringing martial law, shelter, food, and hope.

Alumnae associations and individual Kappas nationwide quickly voiced their eagerness to help. The Fraternity, anxious to locate Miami Kappas, placed public service announcements with all local radio and television stations, but without electricity, few received the message. When postal service slowly regained strength, letters were sent which included an emergency phone number and stamped postcards. Gradually, responses began to arrive, and by the end of October we had heard from more than half of the 400 Kappas caught in Andrew's path. Their stories are amazing testaments to the courage and tenacity of the human spirit and far-reaching power of our sisterhood.

Six elderly retirement village residents, all beloved members of the Miami Alumnae Association, were among those evacuated before the storm struck, and their home converted for military operations. Kappas searched for them in vain. They surfaced through the mailing, tucked securely away at a Holiday Inn 60 miles north, their temporary home until spring. Their Kappa spirit is now in the safekeeping of the Palm Beach Alumnae Association whose members are all too aware of their fortune in missing Andrew's fury.

Young Kappa military wives at Homestead Air Force Base were left to cope alone, their husbands restationed out of state. One whose home was destroyed moved in with another, and the two managed to carry out their advisory duties for Rush at the University of Miami. Fort Lauderdale alumnae covered for Miami Kappas unable to provide their usual support.

A Kappa teacher in Miami wrote that she was fine but her students needed supplies. The neighborhood was in ruin, her elementary school had become a base operations center for the 82nd Airborne Division, and her students and their parents were struggling. The Baltimore Alumnae Association passed the hat and sent a case of needed supplies.

Returned postcards read: "Lost our home but we're ok!" — "We're slowly digging out, but can I help with calling when the phone is reconnected?" —

A Miami Kappa discovers her home unspared by Hurricane Andrew.

“We have much damage but the spare bedroom is available to anyone who needs it.” — “We’re lucky! Lost our business but not our home.” — “Temporarily living with friends, but I want to help. Check back next month.” Of the responses indicating severe or total loss, not one asked for help. Many dozens more suffered serious damage, but all offered aid to others, not regrets. Each card bore the same thought, “Thanks so much for caring!”

Jody Gluck Crosland, West Virginia, President of the Miami Alumnae Association, said, “I have talked with more than 100 Kappa victims of Andrew. They are all amazed. They cannot believe Kappa sisterhood reaches this far, regardless of their own involvement since college. They had no idea how much Kappa cared. The Fraternity’s concern means the world to them.”

Any natural disaster leaves lingering problems in its wake. Full recovery from a disaster of this magnitude will take years. But Kappa is truly for a lifetime, in prosperity and peril, to share and foster the finer feelings of the heart. Gradually, everyone who has expressed a desire to help will be given that opportunity. Meanwhile, to all our sisters in Miami, Louisiana, and Hawaii, we offer our support, comfort, and admiration. You ARE the Fraternity. By reaching out to each other in times of distress, you and Kappa have gained strength and lived the Fraternity’s ideals.

—Lucy Quist Mullins, Cincinnati

Smashed Kappa’s boats, the Robalo and Shelleymaker, form a sad piece of the damaged coastline.

Andrew leaves a memorable calling card in the front yard of Jennie Alter Soberon, Miami.
