FOREWORD

Each day spent here at Central is but a little life, consisting of many incidents which endure only for a short space of time and will exist in future years only as memories. It is the hope of the staff that with the passing years this Oracle might become a symbol of friendships formed, and the many happy days spent here.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The six Annual Conferences supporting Indiana Central College elect representatives on the Board of Trustees as follows: St. Joseph, White River, Indiana, and Illinois each three ministers and three laymen; Wisconsin three representatives; and Minnesota two. The Alumni elect six Trustees from their number and the Trustees themselves elect six Trustees At Large, and the president of the college is a member ex-officio. The bishop and conference superintendents are always chosen as members. Dr. J. W. Lake has been president of the Board since 1918.

The Trustees determine the policies of the college, elect the officers and faculty members and help promote the college interests in every way possible. They meet annually at commencement time and occasionally in special session at other times. Because of the importance of the position, the Conferences have been careful to choose the best of representatives and these in turn attend the Trustee meetings almost without exception.

The Trustees receive the reports of the officers of the college and the recommendation of the faculty for the granting of diplomas and degrees and they authorize the president of the college to say those words and give the documents which are so welcome to students as they become alumni.

BOOSTER CLUB

An important organization connected with the athletics of the school is the Booster Club. It is composed of representatives from the various classes and other organizations.

"HENRICKS"

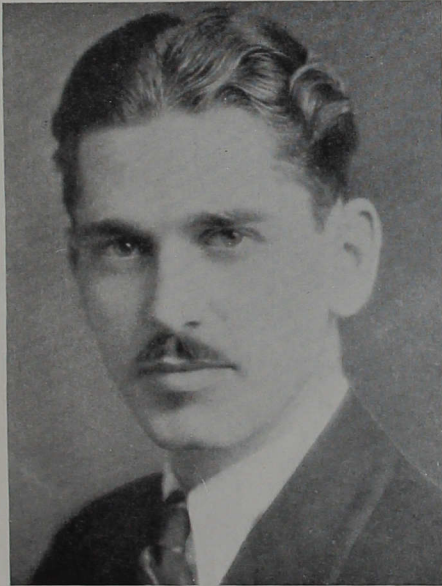

"C" sweaters for the lettermen are provided by this club. This year, with the aid of the Booster Club, new suits were purchased for the Basketball Team. Pep sessions and other activities sponsored by this club help to foster a loyal and proper spirit toward athletics among the students.

COACH Harry C. Good

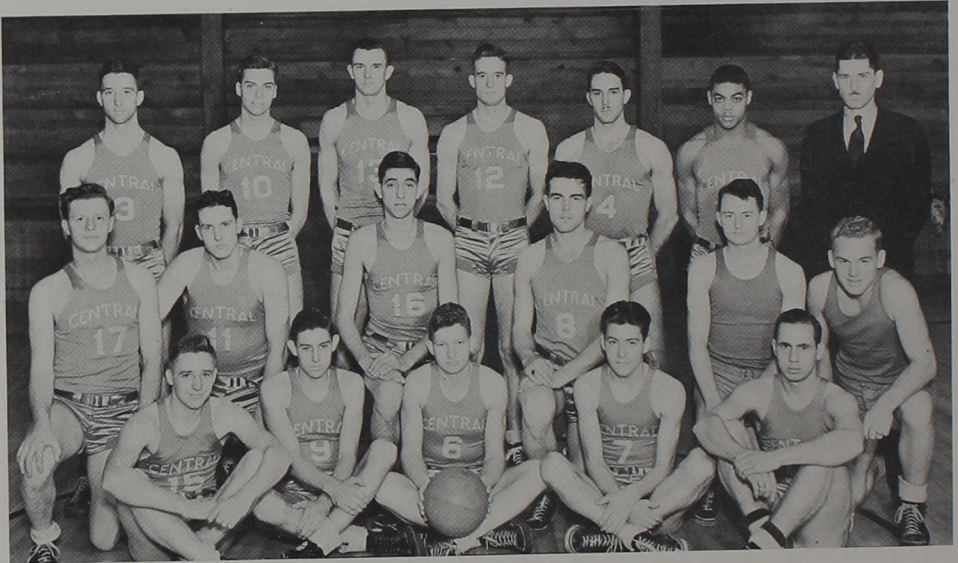

As Director of Athletics, Coach Good has brought much glory to Indiana Central, not only by putting out winning teams, but also by sending out coaches, teachers, and citizens who have been taught to play "the game" fairly, and who display those qualities of sportsmanship that make for a happy and successful life.

"C" ASSOCIATION

This association is made up of all those who have been awarded a "letter" in baseball, basketball, or track. John Byers is the president of the organization this year.

BASKETBALL

Starting off to an early season the "Goodmen" set out to be on the top side of eighteen games with eleven different teams. Coach Good had plenty of material from which to select a first five and also capable substitutes for each position. The team showed much power in offense with a fast breaking type of play and also displayed exceptional defensive ability. They finished the season with only four losses and finished third in the state. Central Normal won first place by going through the season undefeated. Second place went to the strong Manchester five, who counted two victories over the Greyhounds.

The team opened the early season with two victories over Taylor. The first one was a home game and ended 46-20. The second game at Taylor ended with a closer score of 45-41.

In the second home game Huntington furnished the opposition and a victory for Central. Every Central player scored and the game ended 38-26.

A game of thrills was lost to Ball State at Muncie. The half ended with Central in the lead 17-15. The lead changed hands four times in the second half and just as the gun went off, Stout, Ball State forward, tickled the draperies with a long shot that put Ball State ahead 38-37. Crowe scoring 14 points was the high point man for Central.

Central hung it on to Butler to the tune of 41-27. It was an easy win with Crowe leading the scoring with 12 points. (No holiday was needed for a victory like that.)

Lawrence Institute of Detroit and the Hanover cagemen were the next to take it on the chin. Lawrence Institute went home on the small end of a 41-31 score and Hanover was disappointed with a score of 44-34. Swank and Crowe led the scoring in both these games.

The first half of the Indiana State game ended with the score 17 all. However, the second half was as lopsided as the opening half was close, and the game ended 49-28—a victory for Central. Joe Bohr entered the game at the half and became high point man with 15 points.

The best game of the year was played on Central's floor against Ball State. Swank held R. Rudical to 9 points while he scored 14. Central led all the way and finished the game on top 45-39.

Manchester administered the second defeat of the season to Coach Good's men before a large homecoming crowd by a count of 44-36. Manchester used a terrific fast break and proved to be too much for the Central cagemen. Crowe led the Central scoring with 11 points.

The Greyhounds gained their second defeat of the year over Indiana State at Terre Haute by a score of 43-34. It was a listless game with Central playing a smoother brand of ball, and hitting well over 30 per cent in their attempts to score. Swank was good for 15 points and Dorton 11.

Playing Anderson a little later in the season than usual, the reserves took things in their own hands to gain a 48-23 victory. Brown, a freshman, starred for Central with 17 points.

Xavier University turned back the Centralites at Cincinnati. Most of the members of the squad were fighting the flu and as a result took a 27-36 defeat. Byers, Dorton, and Crowe each got six points with Swank getting eight.

The passing attack led by Hise, Byers, and Dorton defeated Huntington College 44-35 at Huntington.

EVERETT SWANK

SENIOR

Swank is lost by the way of the sheepskin parade. His position on the five was guard, and he proved to be a spark plug in every game. He had a way of thrilling the spectators with his excellent dribbling, his long shots, and those one handed push shots. He made the first team and won his letter in his freshman year. Graduating in '33 from Normal work he returned in '36 to complete his four year course. Swank was the highest scorer on this year's team, making a total of 136 points for an average of 8 points per game. For his performance he received a berth on this year's second All State Team.

JOHN BYERS

SENIOR

"Johnny" is also "gone with the seniors." Serving more time in his freshman year than any other player on the squad, Byers has always been a member of the first five. His first two years he held a forward position, but in his last two years he has been controlling the tip at the center position. John was an exceptional player on defense as well as on offense. He afforded the team much strength in obtaining the ball by his ability to rebound the ball. He will be missed.

KENNETH DORTON

JUNIOR

"Red" made his debut as a forward with the Greyhounds his freshman year and has held that position for three years. His second year Red was chosen as a member of the All State Team. He is very fast, alert, and a good right or left hand shot. His height has been a constant asset in getting the ball for Central. We'll be seeing more of Dorton next year.

RAY CROWE

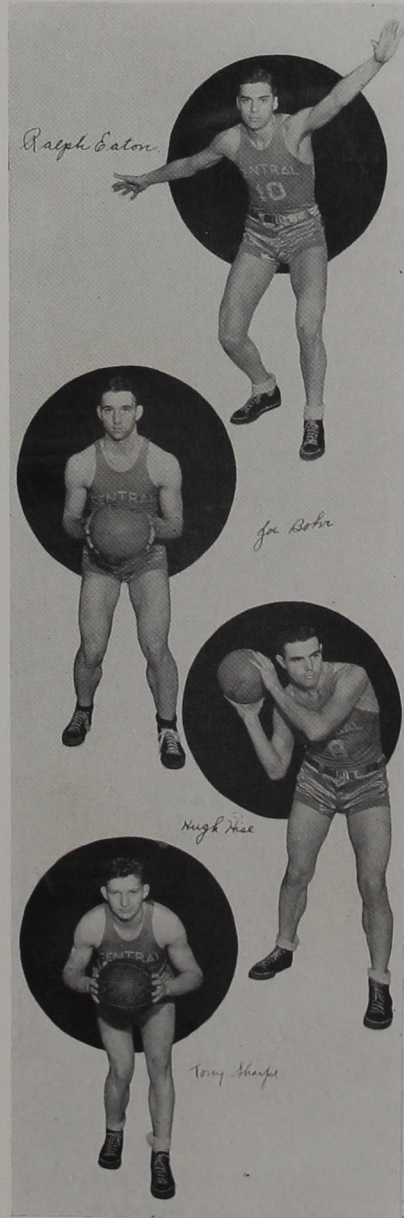

JUNIOR

Crowe, a forward, has much speed and drive. When he starts for the basket he is hard to stop. This is evident in the fact that this year Ray garnered 120 points for an average of 7.5 points per game. Ray's ability has made him an important cog in the team's offense. Since Ray is only a Junior he will have another year to play for the Cardinal and Grey.

RALPH EATON

JUNIOR

Ralph is a steady player with a "never give up" spirit. He is a good "feeder" and makes many a pass from which a basket is made. He is an accurate shot from the foul line and also a good shot from the field. As a guard he has the qualities that a guard position requires. He made his letter in his Sophomore year and has one more year to don the Cardinal and Grey for Central.

JOE BOHR

SOPHOMORE

Joe has proved to be a very good reserve man and has competently fulfilled his duties at forward whenever he was given an opportunity. Joe has made a great improvement and will have two more years in which to show his metal. Bohr is fast, a fighter, and a good shot under the basket. He made his letter this year.

SOPHOMORE

Hugh has turned in many fine performances this year. In fulfilling his job at guard he has broken up many a sure basket and was constantly bringing the ball out from the opponents' backboard. His height and weight are important factors in the team's defense. He will be in the ranks of the "Goodmen" for two more years.

WILLIAM SHARPE

"Tony" does not have the height that the other members of the squad have, but he makes up for it in his ability to get points, his clever dribbling, his accurate passing, and by doing a fine job of guarding. He did not see much action this year, but he gave a good account of himself whenever called upon to fulfill the floor guard position. Sharpe still has two years to perform for Central.

BASEBALL

In the delayed season opener at University Heights, "Red" Dorton held N. C. A. G. U. to three hits and one run, while he and Linville sneaked across for tallies in a seven inning game. Score 2-1.

In the second game of the season against Butler at the northside diamond, McNamara pitched a very creditable game, allowing only three runs on eleven hits. However his teammates could gather only six hits and thus Butler won 1-3.

Again playing away from home, the Greyhounds swamped Franklin. Keene was on the mound for the locals, and with the aid of Byers's hitting was able to give Central a decisive victory 12-3.

Dorton appeared again to conquer N. C. A. G. U. by an overwhelming score of 23-10. Clayton, a freshman, took the spotlight in this game as he pounded out four hits in five times at bat.

Hard luck traveled with the Goodmen to Richmond for their next game. McNamara, the pitcher, and Tony Sharpe, the third baseman, garnered three hits apiece. This, however, was not enough to beat the 11 runs and 17 hits of Earlham. 7-11.

Keene again pitched a very fine game, this time at Muncie. However, a Ball State rally in the eighth inning brought them four runs and enabled them to win 3-5.

McNamara won his first game of the season from Butler on the home diamond. Byers and Hise furnished the hitting power of the day with five and four hits respectively out of five times at bat. The final score was 15-8.

In a return game at Butler, the Greyhounds fell by a score of 9-8, when a two run rally in the ninth inning fell short of a victory.

The postponed game with Bonebrake Theological Seminary was won by Central by a one-sided score of 18-3. Dorton, Cox, and Byers twirled for this game.

Keene again gave a good performance by holding the Ball State aggregation to six hits and one run. This was the first victory over Ball State since 1934. Score 4-1.

In the next game on the home court against Franklin, McNamara allowed only four hits. The game ended with a loss for the visitors, 6-2.

Keene and Dorton twirled the next game against N. C. A. G. U., with Campbell on the receiving end. Brown led the way to a 16-7 victory with four hits out of five times at bat.

Sharpe started the last of the four game series with Butler by driving out a double to account for our only run of the game when McNamara singled. Blackaby, the pitcher for the northsiders, knocked a home run in the fifth inning. The game ended in favor of Butler, 1-3.

DePauw, the visiting team, furnished another win for Central by a score of 6-3. Keene pitched another fine ball game and also had a perfect day at bat.

In a return game at DePauw, Central lost by one point. DePauw staged a rally in the ninth inning to account for six runs which was enough to beat Central by a score of 9-10. Keene was on the mound for the Centralites.

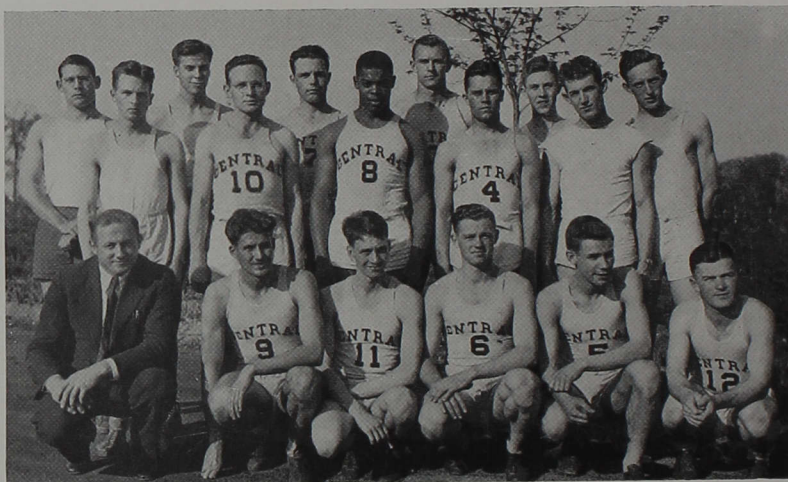

In the last game the locals went on a hitting spree and won by the humiliating score of 18-1. Byers was outstanding for the locals with two home runs, a triple, and a single to his credit. Keene allowed Earlham only four hits.

The Earlham game ended the college baseball careers of "Bob" Collier, Delph, and "Catfish" Williams.

The Greyhounds turned in a good record for the 1936 season with six losses and ten victories.

TRACK COACH

Ralph E. Ponsler

Coach Ponsler was a graduate of Indiana Central College in 1936. He has taken over the job of coaching the cinder men for the 1937 season and also is in charge of the intra-mural program.

First to fall before the boys from Central was the Anderson College team. Anderson scored only one first place as Central rolled up an overwhelming 110 points to 21 for Anderson. Jim Wilson, with 24 points to his credit, was the individual high scorer of the day.

At Earlham College, Coach Catlin's proteges came within five points of capturing a hotly contested triangular meet involving the locals, Earlham, and Central Normal. However, failure to place in the high hurdles, javelin, and mile events cost the Greyhounds their first defeat of the season. John Byers came through to garner eighteen points and individual honors of the day, but was closely pressed by Ray Crowe.

Indiana State could offer no serious competition to a fighting Greyhound team, and succumbed to an 83-46 beating as Central captured eleven out of the fifteen first places, and ten seconds out of a like number. Again the big three, Byers, Crowe and Wilson, carried off the scoring honors of the day with 20, 12, and 15 points, respectively.

The meet at Butler University with the Butler freshmen proved to be a pushover, although the Greyhounds had expected the toughest opposition of the dual meet season. The final score read 90-40 in favor of Central with Byers, Crowe, and Wilson again leading the scoring.

The last duel meet of the cinder season was held at Hanover with the Hanover College Hilltoppers. It was a rainy day and the meet was nearly canceled, but the Greyhounds were not held down by the muddy tracks when it came to winning. The record on the books shows a 61-49 victory with Byers having 16 points and Crowe running up 19 for high honors.

In the Little State Meet held at DePauw, Coach Catlin's boys came through with 11 2/3 points. Byers took first in the discus throw, second in the 220 yard dash, tied for third, fourth, and fifth in the high jump, and then helped the relay team capture a second place in the mile relay.

At the Big State Meet, Notre Dame and I. U. took the honors with 67 and 64 points respectively. Byers qualified in the discus throw but did not place.

INTRA-MURAL SPORTS

Under the competent guidance of Coach Ponsler, the intra-mural sport program of the '36 and '37 school year has been a success. Intra-mural sports are sponsored for the benefit of those who are unable to participate on a varsity team. They provide a wholesome and entertaining activity for the students.

The softball "round robin" ended with Price's team and Byers's team tied for first place. The tie was played off in a very exciting game with Price's team winning 11-10.

The "touch football" season was played with the teams evenly matched and the result was many ties.

At Hanover the Hilltoppers gave the Greyhounds a close battle. Hanover led 3 points with but three minutes to go. Crowe flicked the net for two buckets while Dorton and Eaton added foul shots to finish with Central leading 38-34.

At the return game at Manchester, the Spartans handed the Greyhounds their worst defeat of the season. After fighting on even terms for the first few minutes, Beck and Dubois went on a scoring spree to put Manchester in the lead. Swank was high for the Greyhounds with 13 points. The final score was 51-39.

The last home game of the season was with Franklin, who have been absent from our schedule for the past few seasons. Led by the two seniors, Byers and Swank, who garnered 10 points apiece, the Central netmen turned in a 36-29 victory.

The season ended with the reserves running up the highest score of the year to win over Anderson 56-37. Bohr led the Central attack with 12 points.

ORGANIZATIONS

THEACALLOSIA

Excellent opportunities for the developing of ideals of truth and beauty in literature, the routine of parliamentary law, and the art of impromptu and extemporaneous speaking are offered in Theacallosia Literary Society. Any girl interested in bettering herself culturally and who is of good character and scholastic standing is eligible for membership. Many freshmen as well as several of our seniors were elected into the society during this year. Even one of our former members returned as a senior and has held the position of both president and critic. With the addition of these new members our bar has been filled this past year.

Informal poetry and impromptu sessions, interesting current news, and a debate on a timely question of our day added to the variety of our exercises planned for each week.

After having spent four years at Indiana Central, it is a pleasure to look back again and to remember the friendships and benefits that have been added to our lives because we have been sisters in Theacallosia.

With our worthy motto, "Labor omnia vincit," translated "Labor conquers all," Theacallosia has gone forward and has achieved a place of recognition on our campus.

ZETAGATHEA

*"There is a destiny that makes us brothers
None live to self alone;
All that we send into the lives of others
Comes back into our own."*

In 1923, twenty-six men from the rapidly growing student body of I. C. C. perceived the need of another literary society to afford actual participation in literary training which was in danger of being checked due to the rapid growth of our neighbor society. As a result Zetagathea was born with the high aim of linking the lives of its members in a common brotherhood. Throughout the fourteen years of its life, Zetagathea has contributed nobly to the ties of friendships formed on Central's soil.

Zetagathea encourages a wide variety of literary accomplishments. Whether it be essays, poetry, book reviews, addresses, debates, musical productions, each Zetagathean strives to bring forth the best that is in him. Many are they who can point to Zetagathea as the institution which has developed their latent powers of speech or writing.

But while the society recognizes the value of and encourages literary proficiency foremost in the mind of every member is the thought of developing the relationships of friendliness and helpfulness so that it might be said of every true Zetagathean, "A friend of man was he, and thus, he was a friend of God."

PHILAEETHEA

*Oh, glorious Philaethea,
Round thee in love we draw.
Thine is the grace of culture,
The majesty of law.
Be self-control thy scepter,
Efficiency thy tower;
And on thy shining forehead,
Love, Justice, Peace, and Power.*

During this year there have been twenty-one members added to the bar. In an effort to promote debating on the campus, Philaethea sponsored a debate within the society, debated with Theacallosia, and finally with Philomusea, emerged as victor over Theacallosia and Zetagathea's debate team.

The society has had many very interesting productions, both literary and musical, this year. The group as a whole seems to be especially talented in writing articles, essays, short stories, in telling funny stories, reading poems, and in making themselves the subjects for good impromptu material.

Philaethea has as her purpose to train the young women of the society in the appreciation of parliamentary law, productions, both musical and written, and extemporaneous speaking.

It is with mingled feelings that we come to the close of another year. There are feelings of regret because some of us will not return in the fall, but there is compensation in the joy and happiness that we feel from having completed something worth while.

*Philomusea, Philomusea,
 What memories round thee cluster,
 As faces dear from far and near
 Gaze on thy golden luster,
 Thou dost remember all who came,
 Tho' some be gone, are yet the same.
 Philomusea, Philomusea,
 What memories round thee cluster.*

Perhaps one of the greatest joys that come from college life is the treasure of friendships that are bound together by a common motive in intellectual development. Philomusea, with thirty-one years of growth and achievement, can claim over three hundred members. As our eyes run over the long list, we delight in finding many names of men whom we have met in other relationships and feel that we have another stronghold upon their friendship because they are members of Philomusea.

The active membership this year is forty-four. This thirty-first year has introduced to the society the fourth revision of the Constitution and By-Laws, thereby establishing another mark of progress. With the successful attempt at dividing the bar into two sections has come added opportunity for each member. The training which comes from serving in all three of the chair offices makes literary membership in Philomusea of added value.

With this spirit of progress ever challenging us, let us sing Philomusea's praises until the halls resound with memories dear to one and all.

ORACLE STAFF

To set forth in this year's annual an accurate and interesting history of the school year, to please the seniors, to conform, after a fashion at least, to rules and laws governing English and Annual publication, to keep out things that will not meet the censor's approval—throw all this together on a background of financial limitations and you have the task of the Annual editor and his staff. The students will be judge of the first; as for the second, we only can hope; College Annual experts can decide on the third, and if we haven't succeeded in the fourth we will soon hear about it. An efficient Business Manager is taking care of the last.

If through any errors of omission or commission, your anger is aroused, remember that we are only human and by no means infallible.

The Oracle is a publication of the Junior Class, but only through the cooperation of the entire student body and faculty have we been able to publish this book. We hope that our efforts and our midnight hours have not been in vain. However, if we have succeeded in producing an Annual of which the Junior Class is not ashamed, we are satisfied.

REFLECTOR STAFF

Headlines, slug-lines, date-lines, by-lines, box-lines, and dead-lines constitute but a few of the worries that confronted this enterprising and hopeful newspaper group, under whose guidance the campus newspaper is published. Although it is "loads" of work, each member of the staff testifies to the joy in gathering news, or producing bits of humor or feature material.

During the past year, The Reflector has been in the hands of the following above pictured "embryonic-newshawks":

"Beautiful sounds are the raw material from which music is made; but sounds alone, however beautiful, will not make music of themselves."

The members of the newly organized band found this to be true, for the sounds which came from the chapel room where the band practiced the first of the year were certainly far from beautiful. But with some hard work under the direction of the "smiling and courageous" leader, Maurice Shadley, the band, with a membership of about fifty per cent freshmen, scheduled concerts at Keith's Theatre, Greenwood, Southport, gave chapel programs, played for the basketball games, and for the closing activities of the school year.

This organization has added much to the school spirit, and the students join with the faculty in saying, "On with the I.C.C. Band."

ORCHESTRA

Blue notes! Trials! Tribulations! Harmony? And finally—sweet strains that are wafted away on the breeze.

Early in October, a few music students organized under the leadership of Maurice Shadley, band and orchestra instructor. The outcome of this organization was our own Indiana Central Orchestra, and as "Daniel purposed in his heart," so these students purposed in their hearts to produce a fine type of musical entertainment. Marches, overtures and serenades took shape and progressed under the diligent effort of instructor and pupils.

The orchestra gave its first program for the Big Y Meeting at Keith's Theatre on February 21, followed by a concert in chapel early in March to an appreciative college audience.

To whom are honors due? To the director, Maurice Shadley, whose success has been made possible only through the cooperation of the orchestra members.

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S GLEE CLUBS

During the past year the Men's Concert Glee Club has made real progress under the leadership of Miss Esther Becker. One of the outstanding features of the organization was the concert trips on Sundays to the leading churches in Indiana and Illinois. The programs presented by the Glee Club contained both classical and secular numbers of very high standard and the blending of these male voices were enjoyed wherever they went.

The Women's Concert Glee Club, also under the direction of Miss Esther Becker, has made much progress this year. The organization has made appearances at various places in the city and on the campus during the year. The high light of the season was a concert in April. The girls wore white evening gowns for the first part of the concert and gowns in pastel shades in the latter part.

The Glee Club has been singing some very difficult compositions and has added many excellent compositions to its repertoire. Much has been done in interpretation and in memorization.

COLLEGE CHOIR

With Mrs. Ethel Gilliatt as director and Helen Thomas Martin as accompanist, the College Choir has had a very successful year. The Choir sings only religious music, much of it done in a capella style.

Last fall the Choir sang at the W. M. A. Convention at the Brookside United Brethren Church. A little later, they sang for the State Congress at the First United Brethren Church. The highlight of the year's programs was the presentation, at Christmas time, of Noble Cain's Cantata, "Christ in the World." At the Irvington Methodist Church, the Choir furnished the music for a vesper service. Later in the year, the Choir gave an entire vesper service at the North Methodist Church. As usual, the Choir also sang the music for the Commencement program.

The Choir officers for this year were Ida Mae Good, President; Helen Borkert, Secretary, and David Livengood, Librarian.

Much of the success of the Choir is due to Mrs. Gilliatt and her efficient directing. She deserves high commendation for the accomplishments of the Choir under her leadership.

Wilson, Carrithers, Faye Albea, Boston, and Mogle.

CONCERT MIXED QUARTET

The Concert Mixed Quartet was organized with a definite purpose in mind: to present a high type program of sacred, classical, and secular music in many of the churches, schools, and clubs throughout the Indiana Central area. The program includes vocal and instrumental solos, duets, and quartet numbers selected from oratorios, operettas, and compositions written by recognized composers of the past and present.

The personnel of the quartet is: Eugene Mogle, tenor and manager; Fern Carrithers, soprano; Winona Boston, contralto; Wilbur Wilson, bass; and Faye Albea, accompanist.

The Speech Arts Honor Society purposes to develop an interest in and to foster artistic work in interpretation, extemporaneous speaking, and debate.

Literary Societies and classes have extensively participated in the above three phases of the speech arts.

At the close of the school year, in recognition of outstanding achievement, representatives of these groups are elected to chairs of membership in this honor society.

SPEECH ARTS HONOR SOCIETY

DRAMATIC SOCIETY

Who was "The Fool," "The Lion or the Mouse"? Perhaps the majority of our students can solve this great mystery due to the efforts of our College Dramatic Club, a part of the National Honorary Dramatic Society Alpha Psi Omega, which is represented on this campus by the Gamma Theta Cast. The purpose of the Dramatic Club, this year, has been to present some of the problems of our everyday life in a form that would be entertaining and uplifting.

Entrance into the society may be obtained by serving in apprenticeship, in which one must take the course in dramatics and also work off staff and acting points by taking part in one-act plays. Much of the credit of this society should go to our able faculty director, Miss Leora Weimar, along with Miss Martha Greulich, our art director, and Mr. Donald Klopp, our faculty production manager, who have spent much time and effort in helping us present our productions.

Y. M. C. A. CABINET

The Y. M. C. A. under the capable leadership of Dr. Gilliatt is the largest organization of men on the campus. Operating through an executive cabinet which meets once a week, it plans programs to meet the needs of the men.

The influence of the Y. M. C. A. is felt not only on our own campus but also on others. Y. M. delegates attend conferences both in our own state and in others. It shares in ideas and in turn receives help from other Y. M. C. A. organizations representing different localities.

This year, under the efficient direction of John McKelfresh, has been an unusually successful year. It has sponsored activities, such as the Big and Little Buddy Walkout, Special Date Week, Weekly discussion groups, and together with the Y. W. C. A. sponsored the Big Mixer, Spring Festival, and other Friday night entertainments.

Its religious viewpoint and its high ideals present a standard toward which every man should strive. The steady influence of the Y. M. C. A. permeates the entire campus.

Y. W. C. A. CABINET

The Y. W. C. A., through its unusual and varied programs, is endeavoring to promote high standards of character and to cultivate the social as well as the religious life on the campus. During the year, it sponsored the annual Big and Little Sister Walkout, the May Morning Breakfast, a "Leap Week," and the Christmas party for the less fortunate children. It also adopted "Scotty" as its mascot and introduced its bi-weekly publication of the same name to the delight of the girls who belong to this organization. Other activities which the Y. W. sponsored jointly with the Y. M. are the Faculty Parties, Big Mixer, Spring Festival, banquets and feature programs. Under the able guidance of the sponsor, Mrs. Gilliatt, and the excellent planning and leadership of the president, Dorothy Ratliff, the Y. W. C. A. has been a success this year. Appreciation is here expressed for the assistance given the cabinet members by the other members of the organization. It has been possible through the help of these non-cabinet members to send representatives from our cabinet to conferences throughout the state. These representatives have brought back to the campus many helpful suggestions that have improved our Y. year.

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS

The Student Volunteers are a group of Christian young people who have dedicated their lives to the service of Christ. This organization meets every Thursday evening in the church auditorium to take part in services which are doing much to foster a proper religious atmosphere on the campus. John Price is the president of the Volunteers. Other officers are Wilbur Wilson, Esther Billingsley, Dorothy Howard, Anita Hale, and Marvin Henricks.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CABINET

Every Sunday evening a faithful group of students has been meeting in the church basement. Many questions concerning campus life, student problems, and life decisions have been discussed under the direction of student leaders. The Christian Endeavor owes its success this year to the leadership of the president, Milton Brice, and his cabinet consisting of Alene Koher, Bruce Wright, Marvin Henricks, Harold Davis, Ruth Randall, and Dorothy Ratliff.

ECHOES OF 1936-37

'Twas the fourteenth of September,
When all through the land,
Young people were hastening
To a school that is grand.

On the eventful sixteenth
We all walked out,
The buddies, to see the sights,
The sisters were not so stout.

On the eve of the eighteenth
The witty smiling magician
Entertained the social mixers,
As did the Fort Wayne musician.

On the challenging twenty-fifth
After minutes numbering sixty-nine,
The sophs won the mighty tug;
Then we all went to dine.

On the second of October
The new students got their break
When the upperclass men and women
Entertained for their sake.

The faculty, to be sure,
Did their part of the hailing,
'Twas on Halloween eve
Amid very much wailing.

Revival meetings began
On the eighth of November,
Conducted by Dr. Todd,
Whom we'll always remember.

Thanksgiving came around,
But found no one here,
We had a four days' vacation,
Which was held very dear.

On the eleventh of December
The stars of the house
Made their debut
In the "Lion and the Mouse."

The women got up speed this year
And cut from seven days to four
Their dating and their wooing,
Then showed leap year the door.

'Twas the night before vacation,
The Christmas banquet was the thing,
Followed by the Choir's Cantata,
Then we all went out to sing.

'Twas the eve of the twenty-fifth
And all heaved a sigh:
Come what may,
One semester had gone by.

The dawn of the thirtieth
Brought friends, tried and true,
To our annual Home Coming
Where we made new friends, too.

On the nineteenth of February
We went to enroll
In Mr. Babb's Cu Cu College
And were dismissed on parole.

Alas! Rush week ended
On the night of the twenty-third
With a George Washington banquet,
But no after-dinner word.

On Friday, the fifth of March,
The "Fool" made his appearance
Along with a colossal cast.
They showed much complaisance.

Miss Eickmann and Mr. Hancock
Were the eloquent speakers
At the banquet on the tenth;
They are no amateurs!

Huzzah! Huzzah! Spring arrived
With a longed-for vacation,
Beginning on the twenty-sixth,
For ten whole days' duration.

On Friday, the ninth of April,
We had as our guests
A throng of high-school students
Eager for new quests.

We all joined in brotherly love
On the night of the twenty-third
At the annual literary banquet
To exchange many a friendly word.

On the morning of the first
At our May breakfast,
Our mothers and friends
Joined in the repast.

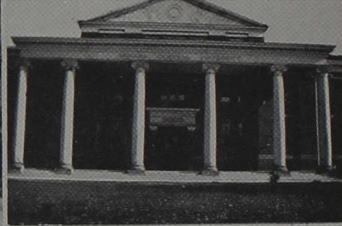

The Junior-Senior banquet was held
On the seventh day of May.
The Spring Festival on the twenty-eighth
Made the season more gay.

On the first day of June
The seniors gave their play.
The Revel of the Roses took place
The very next day.

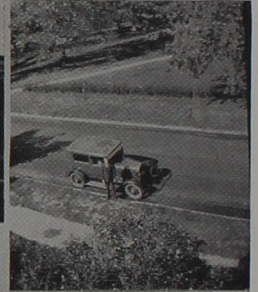

On the fourth day of June
We all said farewell
To seniors and classmates,
And tried all gloom to dispel.

BITS OF WIT

"Congratulations, Joe," said Jake Witherbottom, "I hear your son Jim is home with his B.A. and M.A. degrees."

"Yep," said Joe, "but he is still depending on his P.A. for support."

They called her Kelvinator because she was so cool.

Jane: "No, Joe, I can't marry you. I don't think a manicurist should ever marry a dentist."

Joe: "Heavens, why not?"

Jane: "Because, if we didn't get along well, all our friends would say we fought tooth and nail."

First Student: "I don't think the photographer does me justice."

Second Student: "Oh, you want mercy, not justice!"

English Teacher: "Give me a sentence with the word 'analyze.'"

Student: "My girl friend Anna says she never makes love; but, oh, how analyze."

Following the ceremony the young couple left on an extended motor grip.

Grocer: "Ah, good morning, Mrs. Brown. And, how is everything?"

Customer: "I'm having one grand time between my husband and the furnace. If I keep my eye on one, the other is sure to go out."

She: "I say that if a woman is good looking higher education is unnecessary."

He: "Yes, and if she isn't, it is inadequate."

Many a young lady's ambition is to reduce the surplus.

Chambers: "I am trying to grow a mustache and I am wondering what color it will be when it comes out."

McKelfresh: "At the rate it is growing it will be gray."

Engaged: "Wouldn't it be fun to go on our honeymoon in an airplane?"

Ditto: "Nope, I hate to miss all the tunnels."

After man the Lord made woman and she's been after him ever since.

Lover in reception room: "Just one more kiss, hon!"

She: "No, the bell will ring in thirty minutes."

Philosopher: "It is a strange thing, but true, that the biggest fools go with the most beautiful girls."

She: "Oh, you flatterer!"

At the studio: "Now, remember, I don't want a very large picture."

Photographer: "All right, please close your mouth."

BITS OF WIT

For hours they sat on the front porch under the tender moonlight, strangely far apart.

"I wish I had money," he said, "I'd travel."

Quietly she slid her hand into his; then rising quickly, she walked into the house.

Stunned, he looked at his hand: In it was a nickel.

He: "I am half inclined to kiss you."

She: "How stupid of me. I thought you were merely round-shouldered."

Joe (studiously): "Say, Milt, if a man druggist is called a pharmacist, what would you call a woman druggist?"

Milt: "A pharmacister, of course."

It is rumored that one of the student pastors, in preaching a funeral sermon, said, "The corpse has been a member of this church for twenty years."

Gossip is a universal currency. It is also the smallest and meanest medium of exchange.

Impatient customer: "I want two pounds of liver, and I am in a hurry."

Butcher: "Sorry, sir, but there are two ahead of you. Surely you don't want your liver out of order."

Jimmy: "Mother's throwing plates at father."

Visitor: "Is she angry with him?"

Jimmy: "No; but she's working up to it."

Leap Year is an open season on suckers.

A negro charged with stealing a watch had been arraigned before the court.

The judge was not certain that he was guilty and he said: "You are acquitted, Sam."

"Acquitted," said Sam. "What do you mean, Judge?"

"The sentence is; you are acquitted."

Rather confused, Sam said, "Judge, does dat mean I have to give the watch back?"

Gerald: "I want to get a diamond ring; platinum, if you please."

Salesman: "Certainly, sir. Let me show you our combination sets of three pieces, engagement, wedding, and teething rings, at ten per cent discount."

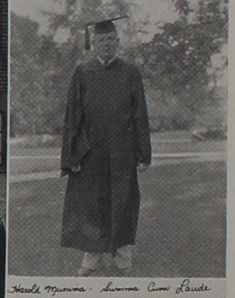

Minnie Ha. Ha. Laughing Water, wife of Hiawatha, had two sons. Hot and Cold.

First Student: "Let's cut classes and take in a movie."

Second Student: "Can't do it, ole man; I need the sleep."

AUTOGRAPHS

This book has not been published by one person but has been the work of many.

I wish to express my appreciation to

Evan R. Kek, for his efficient help and advice.

Mrs. Kek and the registration department for the accurate records they furnished us.

Those outside agencies that have aided materially and lent their personal interest and help: Mr. Bowser of the Commercial Service Company, Mr. Ropkey of the Indianapolis Engraving Company, and Mr. Clem Voorhis and Staff of the Voorhis Studios.

Jack Wonnell, for his work in financing and circulation of the book.

Alene Koher, for her work in the various write-ups.

Tracy Kerlin, for his work in editing the sport section and for his other help in getting the book ready for press.

Richard Emery, for his work in collecting and taking pictures and arranging the snapshots of the book.

Ruth Kiser, for recording and putting into print the "high spots" of the year.

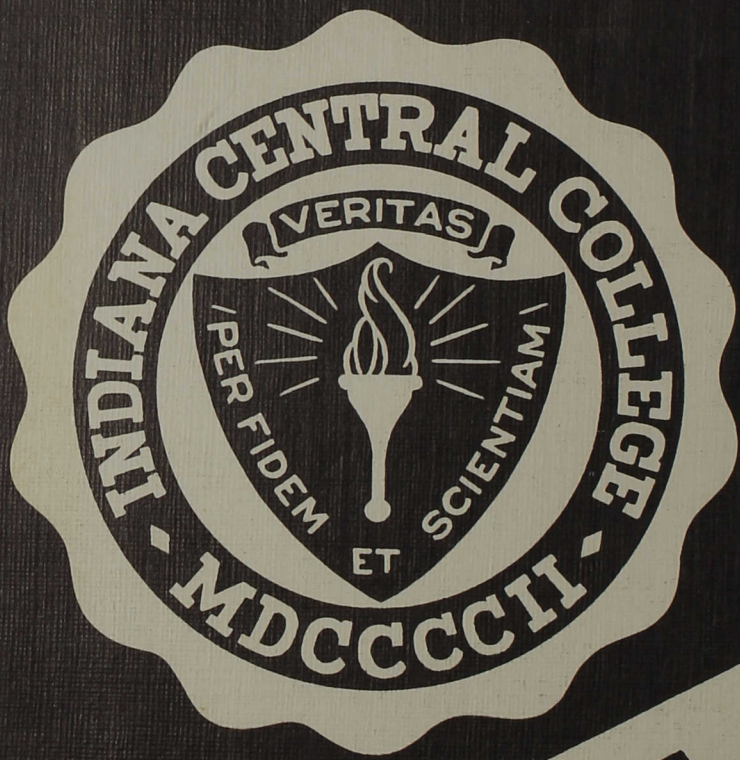

John Price, for providing the humor for the book.

Ruth Andis, for her work in typing the copy for the Annual.

All others who have furnished help in the production of this book.

The work is nearly over and we hope that you will like this '37 Oracle. If you are not satisfied blame the Editor; if you are, blame the staff. However, if in the coming years the value of this Oracle increases in your eyes and becomes a cherished reminder of your college days, we shall be content.
