At the confluence of the Sambre and Meuse rivers, the Citadel of Namur majestically overlooks the city. Together, they have transcended many ages!

Built on a particularly impressive rocky outcrop, this exceptional heritage site has successfully conserved the traces of each period during its 2000 years of history. The citadel was the residence of the Counts of Namur in the Middle Ages before being transformed into a holiday home for King Léopold II. Today it is a hotspot for events, guided tours and walks through a green setting offering spectacular views of the city.

A CONFLUENCE RIGHT IN THE MIDDLE OF THE CITY...

It is quite rare and deserves to be underscored!

The Rivers Sambre and Meuse converge there, affording an uninterrupted view below the ramparts of the fortress. Visitors can admire from end to end the Elysette [Walloon government] which is almost opposite the Hospice Saint-Gilles, the Parliament of Wallonia.

ENJOYABLE DISCOVERIES ALONG THE WATER...

© B. D'Airmonte - OTN

Namur is a city of water, nestling at the intersection of the magnificent Meuse and Sambre valleys. Whatever you are looking for, you are sure to find it here.

Namur reveals its charm and its way of life along the water's edge, as well. Set sail on the delightful Namourettes - small, retro-style boats, ride along the quayside of the Meuse and the Sambre rivers on a bicycle or in a rickshaw... Stop for a delicious meal in a restaurant at the water's edge or make the most of a terrace with a view over the Citadel and the confluence of the city's two rivers...

Be carried along by the current as you take a cruise and explore the waterways of Namur. Discover the Mosan villas dotted along the river banks, the Parliament of Wallonia set between the river and the Citadel, the strawberry museum and much more besides.

There is no lack of sports and nautical activities here. Hire a catamosan (boat which does not require a licence) from the Capitainerie and enjoy navigating along the Meuse at your own pace. Conquer the Meuse on a stand-up paddle, experience marvellous sensations with a blob jump or try sailing and kayaking!

© Simon Fusiller - SKUDS

In Namur, your adventure along the water does not stop there. As well as enjoying nautical trips and sports, you can also come here to stay in a superb villa nestling on the river bank or experience a night on a barge. The choice is yours!

The Museum of Decorative Arts is set in the former private home of the counts of Groesbeeck and the marquises of Croix, enhanced by a garden in the French style, which evokes the atmosphere of a nobleman's residence during the Age of the Enlightenment. Alongside it, the Museum of Archaeology (currently undergoing work) aims to offer visitors the chance to rediscover archaeological collections devoted to the Namur region in a brand-new exhibition space.

Les Bateliers is a real island of culture connecting the Félicien Rops provincial museum, the Maison de la Poésie poetry centre and the Maison du Conte storytelling centre through public gardens that hold temporary exhibitions and permanent works (poem chairs by Quebec sculptor Michel Goulet, fresco by Tamar Kasparian, miniature sculptures by Spanish artist Isaac Cordal). The site is to include an auditorium, educational rooms and shortly a restaurant and a boutique.

Namur is the capital but also the heart of Wallonia... and if there's one thing its inhabitants do not lack, it's heart! And we can prove it by giving you a list of our favourite places, where we like to go and share our legendary art of living.

DELICACIES NOT TO BE MISSED...

A brief stopover at the Belgo-Belge bistro, some discoveries in the Empreinte Belge shop, or delicatessen specialities and spirits at the Caves de Wallonie, gastronomy à la carte or in a set menu at the Espièglerie, or tapas at the Bouchon Namurois, a nice little dish at the Temps de Cerises, a good glass of wine at Vino Vino, and matching fare! And then there is the double location for rest and the senses... The Royal Snail design hotel and the Agathopède restaurant, etc., etc... Namur is unquestionably the capital of delicacy and refinement!

UP FOR SOMETHING "SWEET"?

Try the Wepion strawberries, bursting with sugar and a bright red colour. You will not be able to resist either the sweet and crunchy taste of caramel coated nuts known as "Biétrumés," whose name is inspired by a colourful character of Namur who's quite a joker. These little marvels can be enjoyed at the Maison des desserts, the high delicacy cavern in Namur. The ideal accompaniment for these delicacies is a nice coffee from the Maison Delahaut where coffee beans are roasted several times a day right in the shop before your very eyes.

OR PERHAPS SOMETHING “SALTY?”

Try the “Petits-Gris de Namur” [snails] that feature prominently in local gastronomy and are also the symbol of the city. Regale yourself with avisance (minced meat in puff pastry), served hot or warm. To slake your thirst, taste a “Blanche de Namur” (Brasserie du Bocq), a “Houpe” (Brasserie Artisanale de Namur), a “Philomène” (Brasserie du Clocher) or one of the wine vintages from the Mosan Valley (Domaine du Chenoy, Ry d’Argent, Château Bon Baron) – and make sure you do not overlook the traditional “Péket” (juniper) which has its finest hour during the traditional “Fêtes de Wallonie” [Wallonia Festivities].

Whether sweet or salty, our delicacies are to enjoy or take away at Made in Namur, a self-service outlet featuring a full range of local and regional products.

OUR FAVOURITE PLACES

WANT TO GO SHOPPING?

Between the Rue de Fer and l'Espace de l'Ange, you will have the impression that you are in an open air shopping gallery. At the heart of the old quarters of the city, let yourself be tempted by our little independent shops, whether vintage, classic, trendy or sophisticated, in the heart of the city centre: you will be sure to receive a warm welcome...

La Maison des Desserts
Chocolaterie de Hucorne - Fronville

THE MAISON DES DESSERTS [DESSERT HOUSE] HAS A PROUD HISTORY OF THREE GENERATIONS IN THE HUCORNE FAMILY.

The Fronville chocolate factory was created in 1946 by Mrs Fronville, the aunt of Mr Etienne de Hucorne. The latter, a confectioner and chocolate maker, took over the chocolate factory with his wife when his aunt discontinued operations in 1974. In 1993, he opened a tea room in the Saint-Loup quarter of old Namur.

Today, Claire and Etienne de Hucorne and their two sons run two unmissable establishments on the Namur landscape with an expert hand: the Fronville chocolate factory, situated on the Rue de Fer provides different varieties of chocolate, but also Biétrumé, Namuco and Fély, whereas the Maison des Desserts, situated on the Rue Haute Marcelle, serves a choice of pastries, chocolates, macaroons as well as trendy snacks in the exceptional setting of a 17th century building.
